Dr. Edward Sleeper Founder Mount Laurel Animal Hospital

The event, open to the public, will take place at the Event Auditorium on the grounds of Mount Laurel Animal Hospital from 1PM to 3PM. The schedule includes a visitation from 1PM to 2PM, followed by a special tribute from 2PM to 3PM, featuring heartfelt remembrances from colleagues, friends, and family members.

He created a legacy of care, kindness, and commitment that lives on in every corner of our building and in the hearts of our staff.”

Robert Mankowski, VMD Co-Owner Mount Laurel Animal Hospital

Dr. Sleeper was more than a veterinarian—he was a compassionate healer, a visionary leader, and a trusted advocate for animals and their families. His unwavering dedication to quality care and his deep empathy earned him not only the admiration of clients and staff, but also a lasting place in the heart of the Mount Laurel community. Under his guidance, Mount Laurel Animal Hospital grew into one of the most respected veterinary practices in the region.

“Dr. Sleeper wasn't just the founder of our hospital—he was the heart and soul of it,” said Dr. Robert Mankowski, co-owner of Mount Laurel Animal Hospital. “He created a legacy of care, kindness, and commitment that lives on in every corner of our building and in the hearts of our staff. This celebration is a chance for everyone whose life he touched to come together and remember a truly extraordinary man.”

Attendees are invited to share their memories and stories as part of this meaningful tribute. Whether you knew Dr. Sleeper as a veterinarian, a friend, or a community leader, your presence will help honor a life lived with purpose and generosity.
