

Join Jay Nolan Community Services for a Picnic in the Park Promoting Inclusion for Neurodiverse Individuals

Enjoy fun activities, food, and learn about new services for neurodiverse individuals in the Monterey Bay area.

SANTA CRUZ, CA, UNITED STATES, May 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jay Nolan Community Services, Inc. (JNCS) is excited to announce its upcoming community Picnic in the Park event as part of their 50 Year Anniversary celebrations. Taking place on June 21st at Anna Jean Cummings Park in Soquel, this event is a wonderful opportunity for families in the Monterey Bay area to come together, enjoy a day of fun activities, and learn more about the valuable services offered to neurodiverse individuals and their families.

Jay Nolan Community Services invites families out for a fun day in the park!

This year marks a significant milestone for Jay Nolan Community Services as they celebrate their 50th anniversary. Since 1975, Jay Nolan has been dedicated to enabling individuals with Autism Spectrum Disorder and other developmental disabilities to live fulfilling lives as members of the community by providing support services customized to their individual needs. The services they offer have positively impacted countless lives over the past five decades, and they are proud to continue this legacy in the Monterey Bay area.

Following the success of the April picnic at Griffith Park in Los Angeles for Autism Acceptance Month, Jay Nolan Community Services is thrilled to bring this event to the Monterey Bay area where they recently began offering services. The picnic will feature a variety of family-friendly activities, delicious food, information about services, and community resources.

The upcoming picnic in the park is a perfect occasion for families with family members with disabilities to connect with our team and discover how Jay Nolan can support them through their Independent Living Services (ILS), Adaptive Skills, and Tailor Day Services.
