

YOUNG FILM ENTHUSIASTS SUMMER OPPORTUNITY

BELFAST, COUNTY ANTRIM, IRELAND, May 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Cinemagic has launched its annual call for young film enthusiasts to take on the role of 'film consultants' this July, to participate in workshops and film screenings to help programme a series of films for the annual Cinemagic Festival that takes place in October 2025, supported by The Department for Communities through Northern Ireland Screen. The film consultants' scheme runs in Belfast's Ulster Museum.

Participants in the 2-day programme will work in groups of 8–11-year-olds, 12–14-year-olds and 15–17-year-olds along with the Cinemagic team to discuss festival planning and to help steer the choice of films for the autumn, as they watch and critique films from around the globe!

If you are a budding film critic who would enjoy the opportunity to spend time with Cinemagic Film Festival, then this is a fantastic opportunity to meet likeminded young people who love watching and discussing films, deciding on some of the content for the largest film festival for young people in the UK and Ireland.

Chris Shaw, Cinemagic Programmer said: "We are looking forward to welcoming young film fans to our annual young film consultants panel, which has been one of the longest running initiatives of the Cinemagic Festival since its inception. The film consultants will have the opportunity to watch and review international films guided by the Cinemagic team and there will be lots of opportunities for discussion and debate."

TICKET BOOKING Tickets are £10 per person and this covers the 2 day event as per age category. Upon booking, Cinemagic will email participants a consent form to complete ahead of the event. Young consultants will meet on the following dates and participants must be available for both dates.
