The scholarship, in the amount of $1,000, recognizes Mia's exceptional achievements as both a student and an athlete. She graduates from Arlington with a 4.6 GPA, multiple league honors, and national championship accolades as a member of Legends FC. Her signing with UCR marks the next chapter in a journey defined by dedication, excellence, and leadership.

“Mia is a trailblazer—not just for Arlington High, but for the broader Riverside community,” said Bill Edgar, President of the Edgar Family Foundation. “Her accomplishments, both on the field and in the classroom, set a powerful example for young women pursuing their goals through sport. We're honored to support her as she continues her journey.”

The Edgar Family Foundation Scholarship is awarded annually to graduating seniors who exemplify integrity, discipline, and commitment to personal and athletic development. Mia's selection marks a major milestone in the foundation's ongoing mission to uplift and empower the next generation of student-athletes.
