Leo XIV was elected as first USA Pope. On May 8, 2025, Cardinal Robert Francis Prevost was elected as the 267th Pope, and he is now known as Pope Leo XIV. This makes him the first American pope in history. Robert Prevost was born in Chicago in 1955, has spent considerable time in Peru and worked at the Vatican.

His inauguration marks the first time a U.S. born individual has become Pope. "This makes the Pope Leo XIV coloring book special for children in the United States," Bell said. Pope Leo XIV has chosen the name Leo, which is a reference to previous Popes named Leo. Before becoming Pope, Cardinal Prevost served as a missionary in Peru, bishop of Chiclayo, and most recently, as Prefect of the Dicastery for Bishops at the Vatican. In his first address as Pope, Pope Leo XIV spoke to the crowds in St. Peter's Square, expressing his desire for peace and unity. He also paid tribute to the legacy of his immediate predecessor Pope Francis.

"Peace be with all of you!" – the first words of Pope Leo XIV.
