The Foundation awarded Diego a $1,000 scholarship in honor of his consistent leadership, discipline, and dedication both on and off the field. Known for his quiet presence and dependable play, Diego has earned the respect of his teammates and coaches throughout his years representing Arlington and Albion.

“Diego leads by example,” said Bill Edgar, President of the Edgar Family Foundation. “His composure, effort, and growth as a student-athlete made him an ideal recipient of this award. He represents the values we aim to support—character, humility, and the drive to succeed.”

The Edgar Family Foundation annually awards scholarships to Inland Empire student-athletes who demonstrate excellence, integrity, and leadership. Diego’s commitment to Walla Walla University marks an important milestone in his academic and athletic career—and reflects the kind of dedication the Foundation is proud to recognize and support.
