Reaching our 70th anniversary is not just a reflection of our resilience and innovation, but a testament to the enduring relationships we’ve built with our customers, partners, and employees.”

Michael Badar, President of IPD

“Reaching our 70th anniversary is not just a reflection of our resilience and innovation, but a testament to the enduring relationships we’ve built with our customers, partners, and employees,” said Michael Badar, President of IPD. “We know we contribute to the livelihoods of countless families and businesses in the USA and around the world, and we do not take that responsibility lightly. We honor the legacy that began in 1955 and proudly carry it forward, continually committed to quality, integrity, and service excellence.”

The year-long celebration kicked off in March with the unveiling of a special 70th-anniversary logo and branded merchandise, including limited-edition anniversary hats, posters, and commemorative pins. IPD also introduced a unique "70th Anniversary Lager," shipped exclusively to loyal customers along with personalized thank-you notes.

Employee engagement takes center stage, with activities designed to celebrate IPD's dedicated workforce. These include historical photo contests, employee spotlight interviews, and recognition programs emphasizing the contributions of IPD's longest-tenured team members.

A highlight of the celebration calendar is IPD's 70th Anniversary Party, scheduled for August. This landmark event will gather employees, shareholders, board members, and families for an evening filled with historical reflections, award presentations, and entertainment.

In addition to internal celebrations, IPD remains committed to giving back to the community. Initiatives planned for the anniversary year include donations to engine rebuilding educational programs, sponsorship of charitable events, and enhanced customer recognition programs.

IPD invites customers, industry partners, and supporters worldwide to join the celebration and engage through social media by sharing stories, photos, and experiences using the hashtag #IPD70Years.
