This year's tournament brought together dozens of local businesses, leaders, and supporters to raise funds for these important causes, which support children with life-threatening conditions and families in crisis.

Events like this show the heart of our Keller community. We're proud to support charities that give hope and strength to families right here in North Texas.”

Kyle McCaw, Founder & CEO, McCaw Property Management

McCaw was honored to sponsor the event and to stand alongside our sister company, ProCo Insurance, in supporting charitable efforts in the Keller and greater DFW communities. One of the day's highlights was the team led by Cameron Moore, President of ProCo Insurance, taking 1st place in the tournament — a fun and exciting moment for all involved.

“Events like this show what makes Keller so special,” said Kyle McCaw, CEO of McCaw Property Management. “We're proud to be part of a business community that values giving back. Keller Services does phenomenal work, both in heating and air services and in charitable outreach.”

Hosted by Keller Services, a locally owned and operated HVAC company known for their commitment to service and community, the Golf Classic has become a signature event supporting missions that matter.

McCaw Property Management remains committed to partnering with charitable organizations across North Texas and believes strongly in contributing to the communities it serves.
