

Indra Energy Sponsors Tickets for Kids' 30th Anniversary Celebration Dinner

Indra Energy continues long-standing support of organization Tickets for Kids which provides access to enriching experiences for children in need.

PITTSBURGH, PA, UNITED STATES, May 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Indra Energy, a leading supplier of renewable electricity and natural gas plans, successfully sponsored the Tickets for Kids 30th

Every child deserves the opportunity to be inspired by live experiences that spark imagination and build confidence.”

Jeff Rodgers, Chief Marketing Officer

Anniversary Celebration Dinner. The event took place at the Carnegie Science Center in Pittsburgh, marking three decades of the organization's mission to provide children in need with access to enriching experiences.

The celebration dinner featured silent auctions of premium event tickets, recognition of key partners, and inspiring stories from program beneficiaries. Proceeds from the event supported Tickets for Kids' ongoing efforts to distribute tickets to cultural, educational, STEM, and sporting events to children who would otherwise be unable to attend.

"Every child deserves the opportunity to be inspired by live experiences that spark imagination and build confidence," said Jeff Rodgers, Chief Marketing Officer of Indra Energy. "Our partnership with Tickets for Kids aligns perfectly with our mission of creating positive impact beyond just providing energy services. We're proud to continue supporting their important work."

Indra Energy's relationship with Tickets for Kids spans several years, with the company regularly donating tickets to the organization. This partnership reflects Indra Energy's commitment to community investment and creating opportunities for families throughout their service areas.

Since its founding in 1994, Tickets for Kids® Charities has distributed over 3.9 million tickets valued at approximately $90 million through partnerships across the United States. The organization works with ticket donors to provide children with access to sports games, museums, concerts, cultural performances, and other enriching experiences.
