

Shawn Soler Joins Legacy Makers TV to Share Insights on Emergency Preparedness and Mental Resilience

FL, UNITED STATES, May 12, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Shawn Soler, emergency training expert and founder of Medicine in Bad Places, is set to appear on Legacy Makers TV, where he will share insights on building real-world readiness, transforming adversity into purpose, and equipping everyday people to respond with confidence when it matters most.

Legacy Makers is a cinematic docu-series that spotlights entrepreneurs and change-makers by capturing their personal and professional journey. This unique TV show, hosted by Rudy Mawer, features top names such as Carmen Electra and many more to be announced soon.

In his episode, Soler will explore how life-threatening moments shaped his mission and why true first responders aren't defined by a badge, but by action. He breaks down the mindset shifts and preparation strategies that turn chaos into control—helping viewers understand how to build mental resilience, respond under pressure, and protect their communities.

“You can’t control the cards you’re dealt, but you can control how you play them,” said Soler.

Shawn’s episode will be available soon on Inside Success Network streaming platforms.
