

Erika Jackson-Bailey Joins Legacy Makers TV to Share Insights on Community, Resilience, and Purpose-Driven Leadership

FL, UNITED STATES, May 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Erika Jackson-Bailey, entrepreneur and founder of the My Brother My Sister Foundation, is set to appear on Legacy Makers TV, where she will share insights on building purpose-led businesses, overcoming adversity, and creating lasting impact through community empowerment.

Legacy Makers is a cinematic docu-series that spotlights entrepreneurs and change-makers by capturing their personal and professional journey. This unique TV show, hosted by Rudy Mawer, features top names such as Carmen Electra and many more to be announced soon.

In her episode, Jackson-Bailey will explore how resilience, passion, and storytelling helped her grow through rejection, navigate the challenges of entrepreneurship, and lead multiple ventures—from food service to nonprofit outreach. She breaks down the importance of support systems, being ready to share your story, and staying grounded in purpose, helping viewers understand how true success is defined by the lives you uplift.

“Defining success through impact: True success lies in making a positive difference in the lives of others and the community, regardless of the scale of recognition,” said Jackson-Bailey.

Erika’s episode will be available soon on Inside Success Network streaming platforms. In the meantime, you can find out more by visiting <https://www.legacymakerstv.com/erika-jackson-bailey>.
