

The International Order of Fantastic Professionals Welcomes Dr. Jack Von Bulow

EDMONTON, ALBERTA, CANADA, May 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Jack Von Bulow founded Temple City Dental Care in 1976, where he spent 46 years shaping restorative and esthetic dentistry in California's San Gabriel Valley. His patient-centered philosophy, "Making a World-Class Difference for Others and Making Dentistry Fun," continues to resonate in every aspect of his work, from community outreach to mentorship.

Dr. Jack Von Bulow

Now retired from clinical practice, Dr. Von Bulow remains deeply engaged in the community. He mentors aspiring healthcare professionals, supports women battling cancer through the Foundation for Living Beauty, and shares thought leadership through his writing, speaking, and social media presence. As a board member and contributor to the American Academy of Clear Aligners, he continues to shape the future of clear aligner therapy. Dr. Von Bulow and his MVP team lead, Dani Williams, are currently establishing a dental assistant training program called the Impact Assisting Academy.

Dr. Jack Von Bulow embodies what the IOFP stands for: innovation, mentorship, and service with heart.”
