The International Order of Fantastic Professionals (IOFP) proudly welcomes Stephen Crook as its newest member. A globally respected executive, investment banker, strategist, innovator, and collaborator, his expertise lends itself to leaving a legacy, something IOFP believes in. His 20 years of high-impact leadership (as an influencer), in strategy, technology management, corporate finance, and merger and acquisitions advisory, have earned him the Distinguished Mentor in Investment Banking for 2025.

“Becoming a member of the IOFP is an honor,” said Mr. Crook. “I’m inspired by the organization’s mission to unite purpose-driven leaders and look forward to contributing to this remarkable community of changemakers.”

He began his career as a member of the technical staff at AT&T Bell Laboratories and later led product development initiatives at AT&T and other companies, leading to $100+ million business portfolios.

“Stephen’s breadth of expertise and global perspective make him a phenomenal addition to the IOFP,” said Dr. Allen Lycka, President and CEO of International Order of Fantastic Professionals. “His insights will enrich our network and drive meaningful impact and change across industries.”

The IOFP looks forward to working with Stephen Crook to elevate further its global leadership, innovation, and mentorship initiatives. His track record of delivering transformative solutions, empowering executives, and driving strategic growth aligns perfectly with the IOFP’s mission to foster excellence and shape a better world.
