□Design Highlights

This exclusive watch embodies the legendary Nirvash type ZERO, the world's oldest LFO (Light Finding Operation) featured in Eureka Seven.

- Matte white dial reminiscent of Nirvash's body color.
- 12 o'clock position features the Nirvash head emblem and Eureka Seven title logo.
- Hour and minute hands shaped like the “ref board” – when aligned, they form the image of Nirvash surfing the sky.

- Case back engraved with the 20th anniversary logo and unique serial number.

□Functional Features

This premium limited-edition model merges practicality with collectible value, featuring a Japan-made solar chronograph movement capable of running up to four months on a full charge. It also includes:

- 100M water resistance.
- Rotating bezel with compass markings.
- Luminous indexes for enhanced visibility.

□Bonus Items

Each unit comes with:

- A watch stand shaped like a Ref Board.
- A commemorative 20th anniversary warranty card.

These items together recreate the image of Nirvash riding the waves of the sky.
