KARA to Launch Japan Tour in 2025

The tour will consist of the following four performances:

July 5 (Sat) & 6 (Sun), 2025 □PIA ARENA MM (Yokohama) August 2 (Sat) & 3 (Sun), 2025 □GLION ARENA KOBE (Kobe)

Following the emotional success of their "KARASIA" tour in 2024, this new tour will present an upgraded stage experience filled with mesmerizing visuals, an enchanting concept, and the unique sensibility that only KARA can deliver — all woven into the magical world of "MAGICAL WORLD".

In addition to their beloved hit songs, the tour will feature exclusive new performances and special stage productions that fans can only witness on this tour. Anticipation is building among fans of all generations.

More than just a concert, this tour is envisioned as a magical journey shared between KARA and their fans. Beyond Japan, the tour will also serve as part of a global promotional campaign targeting fans across Asia, Europe, and the Americas, once again demonstrating the powerful global impact of K-POP.

Further details, including ticket sales and performance updates, will be announced via the official tour website.
