

FlightGuardian Launches 'Safety Officer+'

Tailored Expert Support for Enhanced Aviation Safety

EHRINGSHAUSEN, GERMANY, May 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

FlightGuardian Aviation Safety, a specialist in innovative aviation safety solutions, proudly introduces "Safety Officer+", a new service designed to provide professional support in operational safety management.

With "Safety Officer+," FlightGuardian offers aviation organizations on-demand access to experienced safety professionals who are seamlessly integrated into operational workflows. These experts take on responsibilities such as developing and implementing safety strategies, conducting risk assessments, and supporting internal safety investigations – all tailored to the specific needs of each client.

FlightGuardian's "Safety Officer+" – a new service for professional support in operational safety management.

"Our clients face a wide range of challenges in their safety management," explains David Schöne, Managing Director of FlightGuardian. "With 'Safety Officer+', we deliver a flexible, scalable solution that integrates effortlessly into existing structures – enabling greater safety and efficiency in day-to-day operations."

Key Benefits at a Glance:

- Tailored Safety Solutions – customized to local conditions and operational risk profiles
- Experienced Aviation Safety Experts – with hands-on experience across diverse aviation sectors
- Flexible & Scalable – available for temporary or long-term assignments based on your requirements
- Cost-Effective & Efficient – outsourcing specific tasks to qualified professionals

“Safety Officer+” is designed for airlines, airports, MROs, and ground handling providers seeking to future-proof their safety management systems.
