

3rd Annual Flores Flamencas Festival Brings Spanish Music, Dance and Cuisine to Montgomery County

Torcuart to produce a free one-day festival at Cabin John Regional Park inspired by southern Spain's vibrant culture.

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, May 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On June 1, families from all over Maryland, D.C. and Virginia will enjoy a third edition of Flores Flamencas on the forested grounds of Cabin John Regional Park in Montgomery County. Taking inspiration from Andalusian festivals that celebrate the energizing colors of springtime blooms, Flores Flamencas will run from 11 AM to 6 PM and feature the following:

Flores Flamencas gives locals and tourists a chance to see, hear and taste Spanish culture they may not otherwise know. It's unique in all of the DMV."

Manuel Sánchez

- Two stages with live performances of flamenco music and dance featuring esteemed local and visiting artists including: Anneta Hertwig, Mariana Gatto, Alma Dance,

Natalia Monteleon, Furia Flamenca, Edwin Aparicio, Downtown Tumbao and Coro Torcuart, directed by Israel Lozano.

- Delicious tapas and paella dishes along with refreshing sangría and Spanish beer.
- Sevillanas for all! Dance lessons and a Sevillanas DJ at a grounds shelter for spontaneous participation in one of Spain's beloved traditional folk dances.
- Festival crafts for kids, including traditional paper-flower making in bold, bright colors.

With support from Montgomery Parks, this year's Flores Flamencas is expected to exceed last year's attendance of 1500.

This festive event is free, with food and beverage tickets available for purchase.

"We are thrilled to bring back what's becoming a tradition," says president Manuel Sánchez. "It's our largest event of the year designed for families and friends to relax and enjoy a taste of Spain's hugely popular springtime street festivals."
