

Off-Stage and Into the Vines: Laces and Limos Unveils Exclusive Vineyard Escape for BottleRock Weekend

Napa tour company is debuting a one-of-a-kind luxury escape created especially for BottleRock festival-goers

NAPA, CA, UNITED STATES, May 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- For 72 hours only, Laces and Limos— the boutique tour company behind Napa Valley's most immersive and coveted experiences—is unlocking private vineyard access for BottleRock weekend. "The BottleRock Escape", a two-hour vineyard experience that blends farm-to-table dining, limited production wines and breathtaking scenery - all timed perfectly between sets.

Festivalgoers can escape the crowds for a chef-prepared vineyard lunch—arriving in style via tuk-tuk, just minutes from BottleRock

Designed for the discerning festival-goer, this elevated escape offers exclusive access to a private vineyard table— reachable only by Laces and Limos' signature tuk-tuks. It's a rare glimpse of Napa's most coveted countryside, wrapped in luxury and perfectly timed so you're back before the next set begins.

It's giving VIP energy—like the kind of wine country moment you'll post about before you even sit down—a backstage pass to wine country”

Chel, Founder of Laces and Limos

“With all the BottleRock buzz, we wanted to create something exclusive yet unexpected. A way for people to easily slip away to the actual vineyards, reset in the most magical setting and be back before the next act hits the stage,” says Chel, founder of Laces and Limos. "It's giving VIP energy—like the kind of wine country moment you'll post about before you even sit down— a backstage pass to wine country.”
