

ShipToBox.com Scales Global Reach with AI-Powered Logistics and Fintech Innovation

ShipToBox.com simplifies global shopping with AI-driven logistics, a tax-free U.S. address, package consolidation, and mobile-first customer support.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, May 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As cross-border e-commerce and international reselling surge, ShipToBox.com is redefining how people and businesses shop and ship from the U.S. to over 220 countries and territories.

The AI-powered logistics platform helps global consumers, resellers, and businesses consolidate packages, eliminate sales tax, and gain complete control over their international deliveries.

We’re redefining how people and businesses shop and ship across borders—combining smarter AI, global payments, and secure fintech tools to lower costs and deliver a unified checkout experience.”

ShipToBox.com

With major carrier integrations (FedEx, UPS, USPS, DHL, Aramex) and a sales tax-free U.S. address, ShipToBox.com offers a faster, smarter way to shop American retailers and ship worldwide—all in one platform.

“ShipToBox.com gives people and businesses everywhere direct access to U.S. retail markets and a frictionless way to consolidate, manage, and ship internationally,” said Mike Ulker, Founder and CEO. “We’re not just simplifying global logistics—we’re empowering global commerce.”

□ AI-Enhanced Cross-Border Shopping

Unlike traditional mail forwarding services, ShipToBox.com uses AI-driven automation to streamline everything from address verification and package tracking to customs declarations. The platform supports both individual shoppers and volume resellers, with full transparency and customer support every step of the way.

□ Embedded Fintech for Seamless Global Commerce

ShipToBox.com integrates with PayToMe.co, an award-winning fintech marketplace that powers cross-border payments, AI-enhanced compliance, and real-time invoicing. Through patented technologies like Text-to-Pay checkout and embedded KYC/KYB automation, PayToMe.co enables a fast, secure, and scalable transaction experience for ShipToBox.com users—whether individual shoppers or global resellers. The partnership ensures seamless onboarding, mobile-first payment flexibility, and enhanced fraud prevention across 100+ countries.

The advertisement for Ship To Box US Mail Forwarding is divided into two main sections. The top section, titled "We Can", illustrates two shipping methods: "Consolidate" and "Split". In the "Consolidate" method, three boxes from Amazon, Walmart, and Macy's are shown with arrows pointing into a single larger box labeled "Ship To Box". In the "Split" method, a single Amazon box is shown with arrows pointing into three separate "Ship To Box" boxes. The text "OR" is placed between the two diagrams. Below these diagrams, the text "Your packages on your demand" is displayed. The bottom section of the advertisement features a woman in a striped dress holding a smartphone, standing next to several open boxes filled with various items like a suit, shoes, and bags. The "Ship To Box" logo is visible in the top left corner of both sections.
