RevlTek's mission to deliver innovative, credit union-focused financial solutions. This expanded partnership builds on a long-standing relationship between RevlTek and OCCU and reflects both organizations' shared commitment to supporting students with educational funding.

Leveraging its proprietary technology and deep industry expertise, RevlTek develops tailored financial products designed to meet the unique needs of each credit union. Through its education-focused marketplace, Colleging, RevlTek partners with colleges and universities to deliver a best-in-class network of private student loan products through its credit union partners.

"We are excited to deepen our relationship with OCCU," said Tim Kulesha, Chief Operating Officer at RevlTek. "By partnering with the Colleging network, OCCU reinforces its commitment to serving students and the broader education community while growing its membership through meaningful engagement."

"We deeply value our ongoing partnership with RevlTek and are enthusiastic about continuing to work together to serve our members better," said Tim Strinz, Director of Indirect Lending at OCCU.
