WINTER HAVEN, FL, UNITED STATES, May 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Small business owners are navigating confusing credit systems, repeated loan denials, and funding frustration. Award-winning vegan chef and visionary entrepreneur Mika Altidor is on a mission to change that through financial education and business empowerment.

On Sunday, June 29, 2025, Altidor will host "Credit Power 101: What Every Business Owner Needs to Know," a free 90-minute educational event at Vegan Monarch Bakery & Cafe, open to all entrepreneurs with an LLC. This community-centered masterclass is designed to teach the truth about credit—what it is, how it's evaluated, and how entrepreneurs can align it strategically to qualify for $50K–$250K in real business funding, without falling into debt traps like MCA loans or needing upfront collateral.

"You can have an LLC and still get denied," says Altidor. "Most entrepreneurs don't understand how credit works—or how to align it with business capital. This masterclass breaks that silence."

Already celebrated for her leadership in the vegan culinary space, Altidor is expanding her impact through Align 369, a financial empowerment brand helping entrepreneurs build smarter credit and unlock funding a sustainable way.
