

Whip-It! Portable Stove Burner for Outdoor and Emergency Use

SAN FRANCISCO, CA, UNITED STATES, May 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- United Brands, a leading company known for its high-quality solutions and the parent company of the Whip-It! Brand has announced the launch of the Whip-It! Portable Stove Burner. The compact and durable cooking solution is designed for outdoor activities and emergency preparedness.

Engineered for both practicality and portability, the Whip-It! Portable Stove Burner offers reliable performance in any environment. Ideal for camping, hiking, and emergency situations, it features a stainless-steel body with foldable arms and a 7.25-inch cooking surface that's easy to store and transport. The automatic piezo ignition ensures quick, match-free starts, while the built-in wind deflector stabilizes the flame in gusty conditions.

With a 10,000 BTU output, the stove is versatile for tasks like boiling water and preparing meals. The adjustable flame allows precise control over cooking temperatures, and it's compatible with widely available 7/16-thread isobutane/propane fuel canisters (EN 417).

Key product features include:

- Automatic piezo ignition
- Adjustable flame for multiple cooking temperatures
- Stainless steel body with foldable arms (7.25" cook surface)
- Compact and lightweight
- Dual connectors compatible with 7/16 thread Isobutane/Propane Fuel Mix canisters (EN 417)
- 10,000 BTU
- Compatible with Premium Propane fuel (sold separately)

Perfect for avid campers, backpackers, and emergency preppers, the Whip-It! Portable Stove Burner combines reliability and ease of use. Its rugged construction ensures it stands up to the
