

Sean Callahan Emerges as a Leading Authority in Recertified Medical Equipment and Energy Healing Technologies

USA Med Bed and Healthy Life Technology Founder Offers Medical Centers and At-Home Patients Worldwide Advanced Tech for Medical Equipment & Holistic Healing.

RICHMOND, VA, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sean Callahan, founder of USA Med Bed and Healthy Life Technology, is getting recognized as a leading expert at the intersection of high-quality medical equipment and groundbreaking energy healing technologies. With more than a decade of experience in the healthcare space, Callahan is helping hospitals, medical centers, and patients around the world have a better healthcare experience and achieve better outcomes—physically, mentally, and energetically.

Through USA Med Bed, Callahan specializes in providing recertified, hospital-grade equipment at a fraction of the cost, ensuring that patients who need in-home care and medical facilities around the world looking for high-quality cost-efficient technologies can access reliable, advanced equipment. The company serves a global market, supporting hospitals, long-term care centers, and homebound individuals with beds, lifts, stretchers, surgical tables, among many other essential tools and technologies.

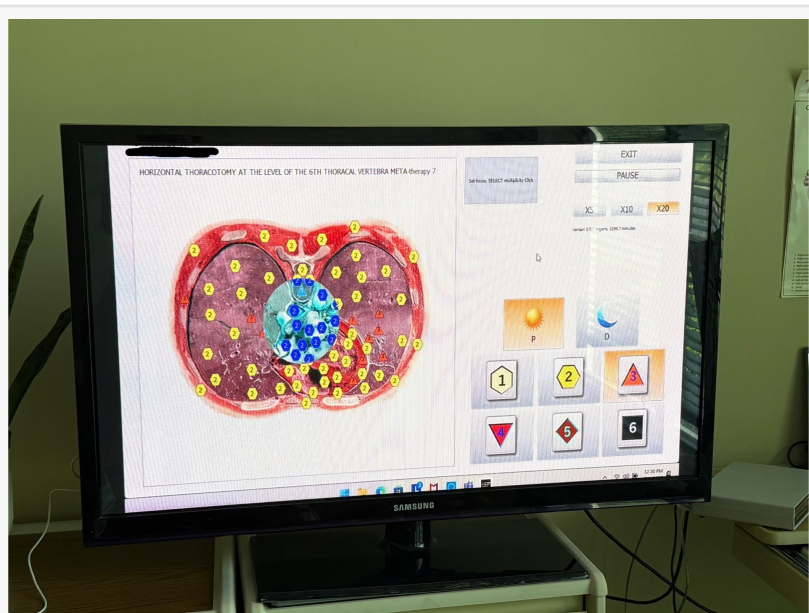

At the same time, Callahan's passion for energy-based wellness solutions inspired the launch of Healthy Life Technology, where he curates and offers healing tools rooted in science and nature. From Tesla energy coils and med beds to near and far infrared therapy, red light technology, earthing sheets, crystal-infused products, and hyperbaric oxygen chambers, the company empowers customers with tools that address a wide range of chronic issues—including skin conditions, fatigue, brain fog, poor sleep, and delayed healing.

“For years, I listened to patients and caregivers talk about the gaps in our current system—especially the need for access to alternative paths to advanced and accelerated healing,” says Sean Callahan. “I realized that healing doesn’t have to be either traditional or alternative. It can be both. That’s the philosophy behind USA Med Bed and Healthy Life Technology—bringing together the best of modern medicine with energy-based support for true, whole-body-mind wellness.”
