RHINEBECK, NY, UNITED STATES, May 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Hudson Valley Wine & Food Festival is pleased to announce the unveiling of its official poster for the 2025 event, created by local artist Kaitlin Van Pelt for the second year in a row. Known for her vibrant and captivating artwork, Kaitlin brings a unique blend of creativity and passion to the forefront, making her the perfect choice for this prestigious project.

A multidisciplinary artist residing in New York's Hudson Valley since 2005, Kaitlin Van Pelt has established herself as a prolific portrait artist, illustrator, designer, and musician. Her playful linework and color choices belie fierce draftsmanship and detail-driven compositions, capturing the essence of her subjects with precision and creativity.

Kaitlin's artwork is not limited to the festival poster. She is also well-known for her expertise in portraits, specializing in people and pets, from babies and wedding scenes to beloved dogs, cats, and even a few horses. Her work has found its way into many arenas over the years, both commercial and deeply personal, making her a cherished part of the local creative community.

Apart from her visual artistry, Kaitlin is deeply rooted in the local music scene, having created album artwork for acclaimed musicians such as Laura Stevenson, Michael Hollis, Los Doggies, and Breakfast in Fur. Her versatility and talent have earned her a reputation as a sought-after artist in the Hudson Valley and beyond.

Outside of her artistic pursuits, Kaitlin finds joy in exploring the scenic beauty of the Hudson Valley with her husband, son, and mini schnauzer. She draws inspiration from the region's
