welcome and encouraged to attend, creating a supportive space for families to build communication skills together. In addition to learning basic sign language, families gain valuable insight into Deaf Culture, helping them better support and connect with their Deaf loved ones.

Amy Turner, Executive Director of DHHC, shared, "There are so many positive reasons to sign up for a sign language course. Not only will it enhance your ability to communicate effectively with Deaf or hard-of-hearing individuals, but it will also boost cognitive activity, immerse you in a rich and diverse culture, and open doors to new friendships. It's a wonderful way to broaden your horizons and connect with a vibrant community!"
