The Palm Bay Police Foundation is a non-profit organization dedicated to fostering a stronger, safer community by supporting the Palm Bay Police Department. The Foundation works to bridge the gap between law enforcement and the community, providing resources for advanced training, essential equipment, and community outreach programs.

Nerdy South Inc. is committed to giving back to the community and recognizes the importance of supporting organizations like the Palm Bay Police Foundation, and regularly donates services to nonprofit organizations that seek help with their online presence. The company demonstrated this commitment by donating its time and expertise in web design and development to build a modern, user-friendly, and informative online platform for the Foundation, and continues to donate resources to host and further develop the website free of charge.

"We are proud to have partnered with the Palm Bay Police Foundation on this important project, and to support our local police in Palm Bay. We believe that technology is a powerful tool for positive change, and we are honored to have helped the Foundation build a website that will serve as a valuable resource for the community."

The new website features a modern and user-friendly design; detailed information about the Foundation's mission, programs, and initiatives; a secure online donation platform; upcoming events and community engagement opportunities; news and updates about the Foundation and the Palm Bay Police Department; resources for community members

The website is now live at
