

All-New George Junior Magazine now includes Homeschooling Lesson Plans

Team George Junior Magazine is thrilled to announce the launch of something they have been working on with passion and care: the All-New George Junior Magazine!

LITTLE ROCK, AR, UNITED STATES, May 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Something Exciting Has Arrived for Young Minds that has been released today.

We really wanted this to be a tool for parents as well. Even parents that have children who go to public schools still like to round out their education by working with them at home.”

Gene Ho, Editor in Chief of George Magazine

Team George Junior Magazine is thrilled to announce the launch of something they have been working on with passion and care: the All-New George Junior Magazine! And the All-New George Junior Magazine now includes Homeschooling Lesson Plans.

Inspired by a desire to cultivate curiosity, critical thinking, and strong character in young people, George Junior is packed with engaging content designed to educate, inspire, and entertain.

One of the new features of the All-New George Junior Magazine is homeschool lesson plans.

“Learning needs to be interactive and fun for young children,” said Dave Blaze, CEO of George Magazine. “This magazine will strengthen the bond between a parent and child.”

The lesson plans and accompanying learning games are age appropriate and give a homeschool teacher ideas in finding new ways explaining fundamental concepts.

Homeschool teachers can use this actual curriculum, as their State allows, or just as a guide to spark the teacher’s creativity in explaining a lesson plan.

Starting with Issue 23, just released today, George Magazine is breaking new ground as well with these topics:

Understand Your World:

Ever wondered "How Courts Work" or "Why Does the U.S. Dollar Matter?" We break down important concepts in a way that makes sense.

Skills for Life:

Dive into practical topics like "Full Homeschooling Lesson Plan: Cursive Writing" and explore why "Homeschooling & Homesteading: Why They are Super Cool Right Now!"

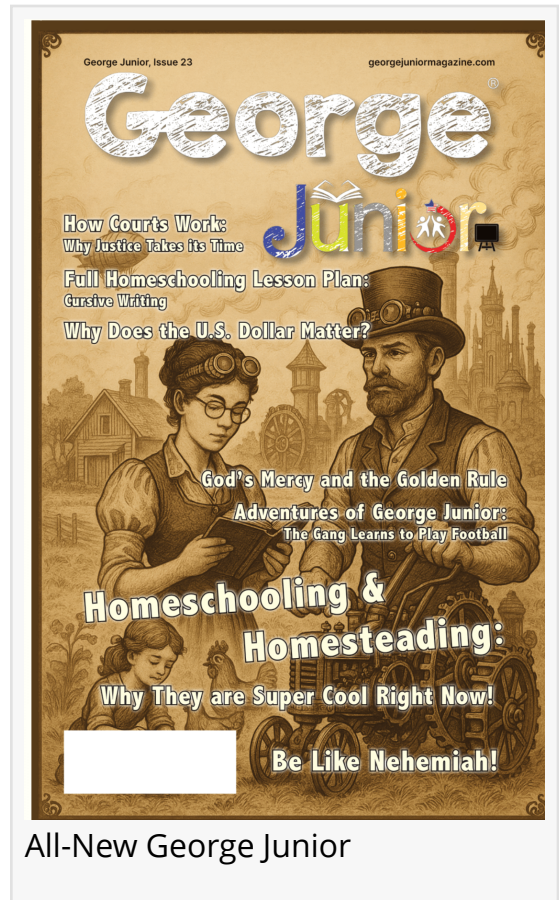

Character & Values:

Discover timeless lessons with features like "God's Mercy and the Golden Rule" and "Be Like Nehemiah!"

Fun & Adventure:

Join the "Adventures of George Junior" as "The Gang Learns to Play Football!"

"We really wanted this to be a tool for parents as well," said Gene Ho, Editor-in-Chief of George Magazine. "Even parents that have children who go to public schools still like to round out their education by working with them at home."

George Junior is more than just a magazine; it's a tool for families and educators looking for quality content that encourages thoughtful learning and positive values in a fun, visually appealing format.

Whether your young learners are homeschooled, traditionally schooled, or just naturally curious, George Junior offers something to spark their interest and broaden their horizons.
