Noted Business Fixer and “Family Business Therapist” Launches Campaign to Help Struggling Companies Reclaim Revenue and Harmony

Some consultants give you a binder. I give you clarity, confidence, and cash flow.”

After seven successful business exits and more than four decades of real-world leadership, Scott Gingold, Principal of Gingold Advisors, has launched a national campaign to assist business owners in resolving operational chaos, team misalignment, and stalled revenue growth—especially within family-owned and privately held companies.

Known as a “family business therapist” and business troubleshooter, Gingold brings a unique, results-driven approach to business transformation. His direct, no-fluff methods have earned him a reputation as the go-to advisor when businesses are stuck, stressed, or silently struggling behind closed doors.

“Some consultants give you a binder,” Gingold said. “I give you clarity, confidence, and cash flow.”

Gingold is making himself available for interviews, speaking engagements, podcasts, and media commentary on topics including:

- Why most revenue problems are actually people problems
- Fixing leadership misalignment without blowing up the team
- How family business dynamics sabotage performance (and how to fix it)
- What to do when founders or CEOs feel isolated and overwhelmed
- Behind-the-scenes lessons from real client interventions (names withheld)

GINGOLD ADVISORS

Based in Orlando and advising businesses nationwide, Gingold works directly with founders, CEOs, and leadership teams across industries. His new media initiative aims to demystify what truly causes stagnation in modern companies—and how to create lasting solutions.

“Business owners don’t need more advice,” Gingold said. “They need someone who’s walked the fire and can guide them through it.”
