CHAGRIN FALLS, OH, UNITED STATES, May 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- World Synergy, a nationally-recognized provider of integrated business services, today announced the successful relocation of its corporate headquarters to Auburn Township, just outside Chagrin Falls, Ohio. The new office is located at 11799 East Washington Street, Chagrin Falls, OH 44023.

New World Synergy Office in Auburn Township, Ohio

This strategic move reflects World Synergy's commitment to purposeful growth, operational efficiency, and deepening its connection to the communities it serves. The new, right-sized headquarters is designed to support a modern hybrid workforce while reducing overhead and reinforcing the company's core value: people come first.

"Our move to Auburn Township represents more than just a change of address—it's a reaffirmation of who we are," said Glenn Smith, Owner and CEO of World Synergy. "We chose this location because it brings us closer to the heart of a vibrant, tight-knit community. Being near Chagrin Falls and rooted in Auburn Township reflects our belief that culture, connection, and people are the foundation of great business."

The new office offers a streamlined, collaborative space that supports both in-person and remote work while enhancing the team's ability to serve clients with flexibility and speed. Located near key routes including Route 422, I-271, and I-480, the new location also improves access for clients, employees, and partners across Northeast Ohio.

Highlights of the new headquarters include:
