

Caring for Evil by Cara Livingston: A Story of Compassion That Confronts Darkness

SAVANNAH, GA, UNITED STATES, May 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Released on December 16, 2024, on Amazon Kindle, Caring for Evil by Cara Livingston is a moving and thought-provoking novel about compassion, faith, and the strength of forgiveness. It shares the emotional story of one woman's decision to respond to darkness with empathy.

About the Book:

At the heart of Caring for Evil is Anna, a Christian woman who agrees to care for an elderly man suffering from memory loss. As she uncovers his past, she finds that it is connected to deeply troubling acts. Despite this, Anna chooses to show compassion, not because it is easy, but because she believes it is right. Inspired in part by the resilience and wisdom of Holocaust survivors, the novel explores how empathy and moral courage can challenge the cycle of hatred. With each chapter, the story offers a reflection on the potential for light in even the darkest moments.

About the Author:

Cara Livingston is a fiction writer recognized for crafting emotionally resonant stories that explore personal and spiritual growth. In Caring for Evil, she presents a narrative that encourages reflection on hope, healing, and the human capacity for grace.
