

NuLuTours.com Expands Popular Downtown Louisville Walking Tours

The Walking Tours of Downtown Louisville Offer Immersive Experiences in History, Cuisine, and Culture

LOUISVILLE, KY, UNITED STATES, May 19, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NuLu Tours, founded by acclaimed author and Louisville historian David Dominé, is thrilled to announce an expanded lineup of Downtown Louisville Walking Tours for the 2025 season. Offering a unique blend of history, culture, and local cuisine, these guided walking tours provide an engaging way for both visitors and residents to explore Louisville's vibrant neighborhoods.

"Our Downtown Louisville Walking Tours have always been popular, but this year we're opening previously private experiences to the public," said Dominé. "Louisville has so much rich history and vibrant culture, and these tours showcase all that in exciting, experiential ways."

Highlighted among the newly public tours is the NuLu Sites and Bites Walking Tour, a three-hour exploration of the trendy East Market District, known locally as NuLu. Participants will sample iconic Louisville flavors at renowned spots like Parlour Pizza and Muth's Candies. The tour concludes with an authentic bourbon tasting at Evergreen Liquors. This intimate culinary and cultural tour runs Friday through Sunday at 11 a.m., or by appointment for small groups, priced at $129 per person.

Additionally, the Misfits and Mayhem Walking Tour invites guests to join a friendly poet-guide and delve into the colorful, storied past of downtown Louisville's legendary figures and prohibition-era history. Key landmarks visited include the historic Belvedere, Whiskey Row, and the legendary Seelbach Hotel. This tour, priced at $45 per person and available Friday and Saturday evenings, includes a signature cocktail at The Misfit Lou.
