"We've discovered that many of our potential customers don't realize we handle the entire process from design through installation," said James Corkish, Owner at Discount Custom Cabinets. "They assume they'll need to find and coordinate with separate contractors, when in fact, we provide expert installation services that ensure a perfect fit and finish."

The company's installation services include:

- Professional measurement and site evaluation
- Expert installation by trained cabinet specialists
- Complete finishing work, including crown molding and trim
- Hardware installation and adjustments
- Post-installation quality checks and adjustments

By offering installation services, Discount Custom Cabinets provides customers with several key advantages:

- Single point of contact throughout the entire project
- Seamless coordination between manufacturing and installation
- Warranty coverage for both products and installation
- Elimination of scheduling conflicts between multiple contractors
- Cost savings compared to hiring separate installation services

"Our installation team knows our products inside and out," added James. "This expertise translates to faster, more precise installations and better overall results for our customers."

The company has successfully completed installation projects ranging from single-room kitchen updates to whole-home cabinet installations in both residential and commercial settings.
