ERIE, PA, UNITED STATES, May 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Logistics Plus, Inc. (LP), a global leader in transportation, logistics, and unique supply chain solutions, was recently named a finalist for the 2025 Qlik Global Transformation Awards in the prestigious Analytics Leadership Award category. The honor was announced during Qlik Connect®, the company's annual data and analytics conference held last week in Orlando, Florida.

The Qlik Global Transformation Awards recognize organizations that are leveraging Qlik technologies to drive remarkable innovation, transformation, and business value through data. Finalists in the Analytics Leadership category, in particular, are celebrated for their strategic use of data analytics to shape smarter decision-making and deliver measurable impact across the enterprise.

Over the past several years, Logistics Plus has become a power user of Qlik solutions, integrating the platform into virtually every facet of its operations. From freight management and global supply chain visibility to financial analysis and customer dashboards, Qlik is a critical tool used daily by the company's Business Intelligence (BI) team and key decision-makers.

"Logistics Plus is proud to be recognized alongside other leading organizations at the forefront of analytics excellence and transformation," said Ryan McGregor, Director of Business Intelligence at Logistics Plus. "Our BI team works tirelessly to create meaningful dashboards and visualizations that empower our internal teams and our customers with real-time insights. Qlik has been a game-changer in helping us scale our analytics capabilities as we grow globally."
