

$SRC Launches $4.5M Private Sale: Redefining Global Trade Finance with AI and Blockchain

$SRC launches $4.5M private sale! AI & blockchain platform tackles $2.5T trade finance gap with RWA tokenization. Join the trade revolution at srcecosystem.com

TALLIN, TALLING, ESTONIA, May 20, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- $SRC, a platform focused on trade finance innovation, has launched a $4.5 million private sale to support its mission of addressing the $2.5 trillion trade finance gap impacting small and medium enterprises (SMEs). The initiative aims to enhance capital access for SMEs through the application of artificial intelligence (AI) and blockchain technology.

Addressing a $24 Trillion Market Opportunity

We're not just building a platform; we're creating a movement to empower SMEs globally, this a chance for investors to join us in revolutionizing a $2.5T problem with AI and blockchain transparency."

H.H Ali Amiriravi, CEO

SMEs account for 90% of businesses and 70% of the global workforce but face significant obstacles in securing trade finance, including collateral constraints, inefficient systems, and geographic limitations. $SRC's platform integrates AI and blockchain to provide solutions:

AI-driven onboarding and due diligence enable automated credit scoring and risk assessment.

Blockchain-based real-world asset (RWA) tokenization converts trade assets, such as invoices, into liquid, tradable tokens.

Digital twin technology offers real-time supply chain monitoring to reduce risks).

DeFi integration and cross-border payment solutions facilitate access to diverse funding sources and instant multi-currency settlements.

The platform positions itself within a growing market for blockchain-enabled trade finance, projected to reach $24 trillion by 2035.

Details of the $4.5M Private Sale

The $4.5 million private sale, now open to investors, supports $SRC's efforts to expand its ecosystem and deliver on its roadmap, which includes a product launch featuring open-account trading, RWA tokenization capabilities, and a liquidity marketplace with AI-based matchmaking. Strategic partnerships with organizations such as the ICC and CCPIT are also in development to further the platform's reach.

H.H. Ali Amirliravi, Founder and CEO of $SRC, stated, "This private sale marks a significant step toward addressing a $2.5 trillion problem for SMEs through AI-driven insights and blockchain transparency".

$SRC's Approach to Trade Finance Innovation

\$SRC's ecosystem leverages AI and blockchain to enhance efficiency and accessibility in trade finance. The platform's RWA tokenization creates a liquidity marketplace with AI-powered investor matching, connecting SMEs with funding opportunities. This approach aligns with the convergence of blockchain, AI, and DeFi, aiming to unlock SME potential on a global scale.
