The TrustFinance Awards, established in 2022, serve as a global benchmark for excellence and innovation in financial services. Winners are selected through a comprehensive evaluation process that includes expert analysis, innovation metrics, and verified user feedback collected via TrustFinance’s TrustScore platform. RoboForex’s CopyFX platform stood out among international contenders for its user-friendly design, advanced features, and consistent reliability.

RoboForex has redefined the social trading experience with CopyFX by making copy trading accessible at scale. The platform supports users across multiple regions, including Southeast Asia, offering local language support, smooth onboarding, and strong community integration. It empowers investors to personalize their trading experience by choosing strategy providers, adjusting risk preferences, and tracking performance through transparent, real-time leaderboards and historical data. Even during periods of market volatility, the platform has maintained high execution reliability, further earning the trust of its rapidly growing user base.

In an interview at the event, Wisarut Chartharakhun, Marketing Manager of RoboForex Thailand, emphasized the company's broader mission: "We've operated in Thailand for over eight years, and our goal is not only to offer products—but to restore trust in real Forex," he shared. This vision extends beyond trading. Through RoboAcademy, RoboForex is actively driving financial literacy in Thailand's major cities, helping new and experienced traders alike strengthen their skills and confidence. The company's latest campaign, "Real Forex, Real RoboForex," reflects its dedication to combating misinformation and reinforcing integrity in global markets.

RoboForex's success is not just defined by technology, but also by its focus on education, localization, and community building. The platform's high TrustScore on TrustFinance reflects consistently strong user satisfaction in areas such as trade execution speed, platform usability, and transparency in copy trading performance.

This award recognizes not just RoboForex's innovative capabilities, but its leadership in building a more inclusive and trustworthy financial ecosystem. By bridging the gap
