This isn't just a new senior living community—it reflects San Jose. From the food we serve to the spaces we create, everything is designed to honor our city's neighborhoods, stories, and people.”

Kellie Shearer, ED of The Watermark at San Jose

Jose blends resort-style amenities, enriching programs, and elevated wellness offerings in a vibrant, neighborhood-inspired setting. The community prioritizes effortless living and comfort, handling everything from housekeeping and maintenance to transportation arrangements, so residents can focus on enjoying each day. Watermark's wellness philosophy encompasses the whole mind, body, and spirit, with engaging programs designed as experiences to provide inspiration and connection.

“This isn't just a new senior living community — it reflects San Jose,” said Kellie Shearer, Executive Director of The

Watermark at San Jose; "From the food we serve to the spaces we create, everything is designed to honor our city's neighborhoods, stories, and people.”

Residents enjoy access to Watermark's award-winning signature programs, including Watermark University for lifelong learning and Extraordinary Outings that foster community engagement. The signature dining venue, Seasons, features talented chefs, led by the Director Of Dining Services, Chef Tony Crane, a Ritz-Carlton alum, who create flavorful, nutritious fare with locally sourced ingredients. Dining will also feature Watermark's groundbreaking signature program, Gourmet Bites Cuisine, serving protein-packed, nutritionally balanced, bite-sized meals that enhance independence and bring back the joy of dining without using utensils.

The community also includes a salon, spa, fitness center, art studio, library, and private theater — each designed to support connection, creativity, and well-being. Dedicated teams are available around the clock to ensure a seamless blend of autonomy and personalized care. Memory Care residents benefit from the presence of Nayas, specially trained caregivers who tailor each experience to help residents navigate their journey with dignity, purpose, and joy.
