Echos of Wisdom is a beautiful metaphor for the mission, vision, and reach of 90210 Enterprise and helps us bring people together across the globe.”

*Dr. Natalie Forest, 90210
Enterprise President*

This partnership brings together two visionary organizations with a shared mission—to inspire personal growth, foster community evolution, and elevate human potential. 90210 Enterprise offers a vibrant platform for conscious, forward-thinking entrepreneurs, leaders, and changemakers, while Mindatorium delivers dynamic multimedia experiences that spark transformation and drive meaningful dialogue.

The 90210 Enterprise Multimedia Collection marks the beginning of an expansive and ongoing collaboration. The collection features curated event recordings, deep conversations with trailblazers, and timeless stories of courage, legacy, and wisdom—offering inspiration not just for the present moment but for generations to come.

Ashkan Tabibnia, co-founder of Mindatorium, reflected on the significance of this initiative:

“As a co-founder of Mindatorium, being able to witness and document the powerful work being done at 90210 Enterprise is a true honor. This collection gives our members and a global audience a platform to be seen, heard, and celebrated in a way that truly aligns with our values.”

In alignment with the launch, 90210 Enterprise proudly highlighted its recent Yom Hashoah remembrance celebration, a moving tribute dedicated to Joseph Alexander Yiddel, a 102-year-old Holocaust survivor whose story of survival and strength continues to inspire. The event served as a reminder of the power of memory, education, and the human spirit.

The ceremony brought together a remarkable group of leaders, creatives, and spiritual voices, each contributing their unique presence to this sacred moment. Among them were:

- Rabbi Danny Illulian, Founder of the Jewish Educational Movement (JEM), who led a heartfelt remembrance ceremony emphasizing the importance of preserving cultural and spiritual heritage;
- Liyah Bey, an acclaimed Israeli singer whose emotional performance stirred the audience and brought music to memory;
- Todd Johnson, President & CEO of the Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce and recipient of the 90210 Enterprise Conscious Leadership Legacy Award, who spoke passionately on values-based leadership and community legacy;
- Farzad Nosrati, author of One Divine Singularity, who offered a profound reflection on unity and shared insights from his upcoming book;
- Joshua Hall, Area Manager at Fidelity National Title, who emphasized the role of ethical leadership in community building and economic empowerment;
- Karen Hall, a dedicated community advocate and thought partner, who highlighted the importance of honoring intergenerational wisdom;
