"A core element of our mission is to uplift and recognize Arab American rising leaders who are shaping the future with purpose and passion," said Warren David, co-founder of the Arab America Foundation and president of Arab America. "The 30 Under 30 Class of 2025 reflects innovation, resilience, and cultural pride. Their accomplishments inspire us and reaffirm the powerful impact of Arab Americans across all sectors of society."

30 Under 30 is a celebration of accomplished young Arab Americans. The program spotlights Arab American professionals in all fields, including but not limited to education, law, public service/politics, non-profit, business leaders, entrepreneurs, engineers, medical professionals, artists, entertainers, writers, and media representatives. These young professionals have outstanding achievements in the workplace and their communities.

All awardees are between 20 and 30, excel in their industry, and effectively engage with the world around them. The competition is open annually to all professionals of Arab descent who live and/or work in the United States.

The Arab America Foundation and its board are grateful for the leadership of the initiative's coordinators, Nabelah Kakish Ghareeb and Elias J. Khalil, and for the prestigious panel of judges.

The 30 Under 30 awardees for the class of 2025 will be honored during the Connect Arab America: Empowerment Summit, which will be held October 24-25, 2025.
