

Music with a Mission: Winery's Annual Benefit Concert Supports Musicians Fighting Cancer

NoVA MusicFest Returns for 5th Year at 868 Estate Vineyards, Benefiting Cancer Can Rock – Sunday, May 25, 2025

WASHINGTON, DC, UNITED STATES, May 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 868 Estate Vineyards is excited to announce the return of the 5th Annual NoVA MusicFest on Sunday, May 25, 2025. This all-day outdoor concert event, set against the picturesque backdrop of Loudoun County's wine country, will raise funds for Cancer Can Rock, a nonprofit that gives musicians facing aggressive cancer the opportunity to professionally record their music and leave a lasting legacy.

The family-friendly festival will feature live performances by talented local musicians, award-winning wines from 868 Estate Vineyards, delicious food from regional vendors, and a selection of unique craft artisans. With plenty of open space to relax and enjoy the festivities, this year's NoVA MusicFest promises an unforgettable experience for all ages.

"This year's lineup is one of the best we've ever had," says Cancer Can Rock founder Jim Ebert. "We're bringing together musicians who've collectively won more than 90 Wammies (Washington Area Music Awards), and many play on stages across the country and the globe."
