

Marketing Expert Lori Werner to Speak at Colorado Integrative Medicine Conference clMc2025

Lori Werner to present marketing strategies to help integrative medicine providers grow their practices and connect with more patients at cIMc2025.

ESTES PARK, CO, UNITED STATES, May 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Lori Werner, nationally recognized marketing strategist and founder of Medical Marketing Whiz, will speak at the Colorado Integrative Medicine Conference (clMc2025), taking place July 25–27, 2025, in Estes Park, Colorado. This premier event brings together leading voices in functional medicine, integrative health, lifestyle medicine, and mind-body care, offering 17 hours of CME-accredited education (pending approval).

Werner's session will empower providers with practical, proven strategies to reach more patients, grow their practices, and build a trusted presence in their communities.

"Integrative and functional providers are doing transformational work, but many still struggle to be found and chosen by the patients who need them most," said Werner. "My goal is to help these providers simplify their marketing, amplify their message, and create sustainable growth."

Helping Holistic Providers Build Impact and Visibility Werner's presentation, "Marketing Mastery for Integrative & Functional Providers: How to Get Found, Get Chosen, and Grow Impact," will cover:

- Optimizing websites and Google Business Profiles for visibility and search
- Creating trust with educational content and patient communication
- Leveraging events and webinars to drive engagement and conversion
- Using email, social media, and reviews to build long-term relationships

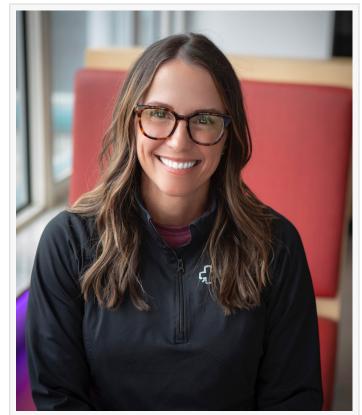

- Establishing a reputation as the go-to provider in the local community

With a background in medical device sales and nearly a decade leading one of North America's top integrative health marketing agencies, Werner brings tactical expertise tailored to cash-based and hybrid care models.
