

A Cappella Camp to Perform at the 2025 Tapestry of Black Voices Awards

CLEVELAND, OH, UNITED STATES, May 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Conversations in Color is excited to announce that A Cappella Camp will be featured as the musical guests for this year's Tapestry of Black Voices Awards ceremony. This event, which honors creativity and expression within Black communities, is scheduled to take place online on June 19, 2025, in conjunction with Juneteenth.

Founded by Dr. Reginald Bowens, a Cleveland native and Assistant Professor of Music in Jazz Studies at Howard University, A Cappella Camp has been dedicated since its establishment in 2013 to providing an intensive program aimed at teenagers wishing to pursue careers in music. The camp focuses on performance skills, entrepreneurship training, and educational opportunities while fostering character development and self-discipline through various musicianship courses.

The Tapestry of Black Voices Awards highlights community excellence across seven categories: HBCU & BSU Conversations, Black-Owned Shout Outs, Our Future—Gen Z Convos, Community Issues, Generational Wealth & Health, It's Good To Be Black—Loving the Culture, and the Gumbo Pot category, which encompasses a variety of topics. Nominations for the awards will be accepted starting May 1 and will close on May 30, 2025, with winners announced during the Juneteenth broadcast.
