David Brunner saw the world of TV News/Broadcasting changing & saw that talent needed change to the way they were represented and managed.

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, May 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

David Brunner ran a successful boutique Talent Agency, DB & Associates for over 31 years. He retired last Summer to spend full-time on his growing Streaming worldwide Television network, DBTV. But his old clients and new referrals were calling him asking for his advice, to look over contracts, make calls on their behalf, and basically beg him to reconsider his retirement.

You Need New & Better Representation & Management NOW!!

"I realized after talking to talent from all different fields, there was a void out there for talent who needed not only good representation but also good, smart, honest management. Also, many of these people were also looking for ways to improve their brand on other platforms," said Brunner. "DBTV was keeping me busy, but I really missed talking to my clients regularly and decided that I would comeback to the business, but in a different capacity and one that was definitely needed at this time."

David Brunner Management started on May 10, 2025 as a hybrid Talent Agency. You get an Agent, Manager, Advisor, Representative all in one. There is a huge void for this in the Media Industry."
