CorporateStack and Invictus Trading Enter Strategic Partnership to Accelerate Digital Transformation

DUBAI, UNITED ARAB EMIRATES, May 26, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

CorporateStack, a leading provider of enterprise software solutions in the MENA region, is pleased to announce the signing of a strategic partnership with Invictus Trading, a subsidiary of Invictus Investment (ADX: INVICTUS), a leading agro-food enterprise in the Middle East and Africa.

This collaboration marks a major step for both organizations as they leverage the power of digital transformation to enhance operational efficiency and enable smarter business growth. Under this partnership, CorporateStack will provide Invictus Trading with a suite of modern, cloud-based business applications, including human resource management, asset management and other workflow automation tools.

Partnering with Invictus Trading is an exciting opportunity and a proud moment for all of us at CorporateStack”

Mohamed Abdin – MEA Commercial Director at CorporateStack

By adopting CorporateStack’s platform, Invictus Trading aims to further streamline its internal processes, eliminate manual tasks, and gain better visibility into its operations. This integration will support data-driven decision-making and allow teams to focus on high-impact business activities.

“Partnering with Invictus Trading is an exciting opportunity and a proud moment for all of us at CorporateStack,” said Mohamed Abdin – MEA Commercial Director at CorporateStack. “It’s an honor to support an ambitious and visionary organization like Invictus Trading, and we are confident that our platform will help fuel their operational excellence and long-term growth. We are committed to delivering value, agility, and results throughout this partnership.”

Invictus Trading has achieved significant growth in recent years and continues to expand its footprint across key markets. The decision to invest in a centralized and scalable digital platform reflects the company’s focus on sustainable expansion and operational resilience.

Commenting on the partnership, Ilya Kuznetsov, Head of Information Technology at Invictus Trading, stated:

“We’re pleased to work with CorporateStack as our trusted digital transformation partner. Their platform offers the flexibility and functionality we need as we grow, and we see this collaboration as a key enabler for our teams to work more efficiently and achieve greater operational consistency.”

This agreement reinforces CorporateStack’s mission to empower organizations across the region with tailored business technology solutions that simplify operations and create meaningful impact. The partnership with Invictus Trading underscores the importance of combining modern tools with visionary leadership to build businesses that are both agile and future ready.
