Prime 1 Studio proudly presents a new addition to the Real Elite Masterline series: a statue of One Eye, the protagonist of "Valhalla Rising," directed by Nicolas Winding Refn.

This statue was produced at the request of director Refn himself. The design is based on One Eye's appearance as a slave warrior in Chapter One, "Wrath." His proportions and pose have been carefully constructed to reflect the character's presence in that part of the film. The skin tone and tattoos are rendered with subdued coloration, while the muscular and anatomical structure has been precisely sculpted. The statue's facial features—including the iconic single eye—are faithfully modeled after actor Mads Mikkelsen, capturing not only his bone structure and expression but also the nuances of his performance in the film.

weapons: an axe and a spear. A bust stand is also provided, allowing for various display configurations inspired by different scenes.

This version also includes the severed head of the chieftain and a certificate of authenticity signed by Refn.
