

Global Immigration Partners Offers Expert Guidance on Trump's New $5 Million 'Gold Card' Visa Program

Global Immigration Partners announces its readiness to assist high-net-worth individuals interested in the newly introduced U.S. "Gold Card" visa program.

WASHINGTON DC, DC, UNITED STATES, May 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Global Immigration Partners, a leading international immigration law firm, announces its readiness to assist high-net-worth individuals interested in the newly introduced U.S. "Gold Card" visa program. This initiative, unveiled by President Donald Trump, provides a pathway to U.S. permanent residency and eventual citizenship for foreign nationals who invest $5 million in the United States.

The official registration portal, TrumpCard, is set to launch within the next week, allowing prospective applicants to express their interest in the program. Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick has indicated that the administration aims to attract up to one million investors through this program, potentially generating significant revenue to address the national debt.

Key Features of the Gold Card Visa:

Investment Requirement: A direct $5 million investment into the U.S. economy.

Residency Benefits: Grants permanent U.S. residency with the potential for citizenship.

Simplified Process: Unlike the EB-5 visa, the Gold Card does not mandate specific job creation or investment in targeted employment areas.
