About Ogee1523:

Harlem-born and Bronx-raised, Gerard "Ogee" Allen is a hip-hop artist who believes in following his dreams—and doing so unapologetically. The father of four (three boys and one girl) and grandfather to ten has been unwavering in his belief in himself and all he has wanted to do, including rapping. Achieving the moniker, Ogee, came after many other childhood names; however, he has undoubtedly earned it now - father, grandfather, mentor, and a role model to the young and old in his community.

Since retirement, Gerard "Ogee" Allen has surpassed what many thought would be impossible, stepping back into the rap game after sitting out for so long. In 2022, he released his album, Never 2 Late, which has cumulatively had its singles streamed and viewed over 400,000 times. And he is not stopping there.

Ogee1523 is an evolutionary voice in the music scene, recognized for blending infectious beats with relatable storytelling. His music bridges genres and generations, bringing people together through shared experiences and hometown pride.
