

French guitar legend Pierre Bensusan to launch 50th anniversary tour.

His 50th anniversary "One Guitar - One Voice" tour takes in 74 shows across the US and Canada

NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, May 27, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Multi-award winning acoustic guitar virtuoso Pierre Bensusan is set to kick off his historic 50th anniversary "One Guitar - One Voice" tour. The French-Algerian is considered a superstar in Europe, and has just finished a solidly welcomed tour of China.

One of the world's most eloquent World Music artists of our time, Pierre is known as "Mister DADGAD" for his mastery of the unique guitar tuning style.

When Michael Hedges titles one of his compositions "Bensusan", you know that the inspiration behind it must be special and Pierre Bensusan certainly is. Guitarists from Leo Kottke to Larry Coryell, to Tuck Andress, Tommy Emmanuel, Mark Knopfler, Andrew York, Andy Timmons, to Steve Lukather... have sung his praises, and Steve Vai released three Bensusan albums on his label Favored Nations. And it's not just guitarists who are so inspired by Pierre's music, as a recent studio collaboration with him on Donny Osmond's latest album "Start Again" goes to show.

Pierre is one of my favorite guitarists. He has created a new way of playing and is the king of the DADGAD tuning.”

Suzanne Vega

"With only his steel-string-acoustic guitar – and sometimes his rich, affecting voice – Mr Bensusan can disassemble your heart and hand it back to you restored and renewed. As he did to mine tonight. A true giant."
