This expansion reinforces EV Initiative's commitment to accelerating electric vehicle adoption and bringing fast, reliable charging access to the San Fernando Valley.

EV Initiative is Leading the Future of Community-Centered EV ChargingKnown for launching America's first Community-Owned EV Charging Hub at 15555 San Fernando Mission Blvd. in Mission Hills, EV Initiative gives everyday investors the chance to co-own EV infrastructure and receive semi-annual dividends. The Encino site continues that momentum by increasing access to clean transportation and inclusive ownership opportunities.

Join the MovementAs a Charge Port Operator, EV Initiative is building more than stations—we're building a movement. With a network expanding across Los Angeles and beyond, we invite EV drivers, property owners, and investors to join us in enabling the next generation of clean mobility.
