WARSAW, POLAND, May 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The European Hotel Managers Association (EHMA) is proud to announce that Mr Diego Roggero, General Manager of Portrait Milano at the Lungarno Collection, has been awarded the 2025 EHMA Sustainability Award by Diversey. The prestigious accolade, presented by Christoph Steindorf, Business Development Leader Diversey Europe, recognises exceptional dedication to sustainability while upholding the highest standards of luxury and guest experience. "The EHMA Sustainability Award, presented annually in partnership with Diversey – A Solenis Company, celebrates an EHMA member who has demonstrated outstanding commitment to innovative sustainability initiatives over the past year," says Panos Almyrantis, President of EHMA, National Delegate for Greece & Cyprus, and Chief Growth & Commercial Officer at Ella Resorts in Athens.

"We are delighted to honour Mr Roggero for seamlessly integrating environmental stewardship into a luxury city setting, exemplifying how visionary leadership can shape the future of European hospitality." The Award was presented during the Gala Dinner at the 51st EHMA Annual General Assembly, held in the elegant Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton Grand Warsaw. The award was collected by Ezio A. Indiani, Italian National Delegate and General Manager of Hotel Principe di Savoia, Milan, on behalf of Mr Diego Roggero.

A Ground-breaking Approach to Sustainable Hospitality Portrait Milano, a model of holistic sustainability

Nestled within a meticulously restored 16th century historic seminary, Portrait Milano seamlessly integrates environmental, cultural, and community-driven sustainability into its luxury hospitality experience. Its commitment is reflected in Key initiatives such as:

- Circular Resource Management: A systematic approach to reducing, reusing, and recycling resources, collecting rainwater, while carefully selected local suppliers ensure eco-friendly deliveries.
- Zero-Waste and Upcycling Innovation: From “Updrinking” cocktails crafted with kitchen offcuts to repurposing used oil into biodiesel, the hotel actively minimises waste while maintaining an elevated and luxurious guest experience.

Sustainability is at the core of modern hospitality. It is a privilege to receive this prestigious award and is a testament to our ongoing commitment to responsible luxury.”
