Black Family Juneteenth Celebration 2015

"Hosting Juneteenth in Leimert Park is deeply meaningful for our community. It's a time for Black people to celebrate our culture, unity, and history—but it's also an invitation for all communities to come together in harmony. While many young people may not fully know the history of Juneteenth due to gaps in education, this celebration offers a powerful way to reconnect, honor our roots, and show the next generation the strength of the village. We welcome everyone to join us in this vibrant expression of culture, joy, and togetherness," said Queen Aminah, Head of the Leimert Village Association.

Community Partnership and Support

City leadership has played a vital role in this year's success. Councilwoman Heather Hutt, representing Council District 10, has provided critical support, including permits, tents, tables, chairs, staging, and portable restrooms. In collaboration, the Leimert Park Village Merchants Association supplies sound systems and event security. The celebration will also feature a dedicated cooling area for elders and a VIP lounge at the Barbara Morrison Performing Arts Center.

Event Details and Programming

The celebration runs from 11:00 AM to 7:00 PM and features dynamic cultural programming and entertainment for all ages. The day begins with a Women's Drum Circle and Libation Ceremony, followed by performances from a 30-member jazz band, line dancing, and DJ sets. It culminates with a fashion show at Sole Folks at 5:00 PM.

Health and Wellness Focus

A highlight of this year's celebration is the Wellness and Health Pavilion tent, organized and facilitated by Dr. Cherilyn Lee, who will serve as the lead speaker. Dr. Samuel Peters III will deliver the keynote address. Attendees can meet some of the community's top holistic practitioners, herbalists, and nutritionists. The pavilion will offer health screenings, mental health information, and comprehensive wellness resources.

Additional programming includes live Reggae and R&B performances and a curated art gallery exhibit to complete the festivities.
